Our CEO's Message

Dear Residents,

This month we will celebrate Independence Day on the Fourth of July, and I hope your families enjoy some well-earned time o with your loved ones, along with all the customary barbecue's and -reworks displays.

Hunt Military Communities wants to thank you and your families for the many sacrifices you make for our freedoms and way of life.

Many of our residents will PCS this summer and we will be welcoming those families to Hunt Military Communities. We have recently chosen new Pillars of Excellence that are the foundation to how we run this company and serve each of you.

Excellence, Accountability, Integrity, Continuous Improvement, and Customer Commitment.

Our goal is to provide you with the very best living experience at each step of your journey in our communities. We are committed to continuous improvement by raising the bar with our management and -duciary obligations of military housing projects.

Wishing you all a safe, happy, and healthy holiday!

Semper Fidelis,

HuntMilitaryCommunities.com

7.29 Soliciting

REDSTONE FAMILY HOUSING does not allow solicitors in residential areas. REDSTONE FAMILY HOUSING will consider individual waiver requests from the Garrison Commander to allow special solicitations. If approved, solicitors must have, in their possession, a copy of the written authorization from the Garrison Commander. Residents are asked to request that unauthorized solicitors leave residential community grounds immediately, and then notify the neighborhood management office.
